"AS YOU LIKE IT" IN PERFECT SETTING

"As You Like It," given Saturday night on the campus of Punahou by the students of Oahu College, was a treat for those fortunate enough to be there. The play was given in a manner that reflected great credit upon the student cast, who handled their parts effectively. It was a perfect setting for the forest of Arden, and Halley's comet in the heavens furnished a center of attention between acts.

ACCIDENTS

On Saturday afternoon a stevedore named James Kuoha had his arm broken through being, as he claims, shoved by a man named Spencer. Kuoha was wheeling a truck along when Spencer is alleged to have given him a push that made him fall and break his arm. The man was taken to the Queen's Hospital for treatment, and Spencer may be prosecuted for the assault.

An aged Portuguese named Silva who on Saturday was peddling mangoes for sale, alleges that he was thrown to the ground by a woman to whom he offered the fruit. The old man's arm was broken and he was taken to the hospital, where the fractured limb was set.

WOOLLEY MAKES MORE ADMISSIONS

(Continued from Page 1.) Woolley made a general appeal for the supporting of his program. Referring to his work at Washington in an attempt to secure Federal prohibition, he said:

"It would be strange if you were not grateful to the Congress which gave Hawaiian voters a chance to prove their qualities. Under your old kings it was only well-to-do people who had the right to vote. To vote for a senator they had to have a large amount of property, to vote for a representative they had to have a smaller sum, but the poor man, however intelligent, whatever his business, or however large a family he might have, was not permitted to have any say at all in the elections. Congress changed all that and said that every man of mature years and sane mind shall have suffrage."

"Then again you know that I went to Washington to urge before Congress a prohibitory law for Hawaii. I thought Congress should make the law without asking anybody's leave. Congress seemed to agree with me until the Prince, your Delegate, strongly made the claim that his people had a right to be heard in the matter, and Congress declared that he was right and ordered the Governor to call a special election to find out the will of the voters of the Territory."

"I congratulate you on this vast increase of power, I congratulate you on this great courtesy extended by Congress towards you, but 'Remember that for all these things God will call thee to account.'"

RUSSIANS READY FOR PLANTATIONS

Hawaii And Maui Will Absorb Many New Immigrants

Very little difficulty has been experienced by the officials connected with the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association in dealing with the last lot of Russian immigrants.

Ninety-seven Russians arrived at Honolulu last Saturday by the Pacific Mail liner Korea. They were immediately turned over to the Federal immigration officers. All but two or three has been passed. The immigrants lost no time in presenting their application for employment on island sugar estates.

The Russians will be sent by the steamers Mauna Kea and Kinau to plantations on Hawaii, Maui and Kauai. Makaweli, as usual, proves a prime favorite as a place for employment. Hakalau and Onomea plantations on the Big Island will also draw their quota of laborers.

All who have had to do with the last two parties of Russians declare that there is a marked difference in the attitude assumed by the new arrivals in their efforts to secure employment.

Despite the fact that a number of Russian agitators who have been holding forth at Iwili, have visited the stockade, their representations appear to have no influence upon the newcomers.

Twenty-four Filipinos who also arrived by the steamer Korea will be sent to Kohala plantation tomorrow.

"THE TAMING OF THE SHREW" TONIGHT

Tonight the Henry McRae company will offer for the first time Shakespeare's great comedy, "The Taming of the Shrew." Rehearsals have been in progress for the past week, and Mr. McRae has spared neither pains nor expense to make this production a pleasing one. The costumes and scenery will be correct in every detail.

Miss Oswald will be seen as "Katherine," a part that she has played with success with Charles B. Hanford throughout the United States, and Mr. McRae will make his reappearance with the company, after a three weeks' layoff, in the part of "Petruchio." The remainder of the company will be cast to advantage.

Next Thursday "The Lion and the Mouse" will be the offering, by popular request. This play created quite an impression when it was presented before, and numerous requests for the play caused Mr. McRae to again present it. Mr. Morrison, Miss Hudson and the full company will be seen in their old parts. Mr. McRae has just completed arrangements for "The Chorus Lady," Rose Stahl's success, and will offer this great play soon.

HOMESTEADS ARE FORFEITED

Yesterday eight homestead lots on the windward side of the island were forfeited by the owners to the Department of Public Works, Superintendent Marston Campbell and Josh Tucker going to take the land over.

These homesteads came back to the government as public property owing to the fact that the conditions of the purchase had not been lived up to by the takers.

All the foreclosures yesterday were on lots owned by haoles.

The Executive Committee of the Men's League wishes to announce that any who were not able to accept the invitation to the dinner at the Young Hotel this evening but who would like to attend the Song Recital of Miss Lindeman which will be given after the dinner, in the makai pavilion, can secure tickets at the door at $1 each.

Hatsu Takamoto has filed a libel for divorce from Yoshitaro Takamoto alleging desertion.

The will of Thomas Wall Carroll was admitted to probate this afternoon. J. F. Eckart was appointed administrator as requested in the will of the deceased, and M. T. Simonton, V. M. Harrison and P. M. McMahon were appointed appraisers of the estate.

Arthur G. Smith has applied to the Supreme Court for permission to practice before that court. His application states that he graduated from the Harvard Law School in the class of 1908 and was admitted to the Massachusetts bar in the same year.

WATERFRONT NOTES

THE LOCAL NAVAL station is in receipt of 4757 tons of American coal by the arrival of the British freighter Rokeby which came into port yesterday after an uneventful passage from Norfolk, Va. The vessel sailed from the Atlantic coast port on March 31st. The Rokeby is not a fast boat and she made a call at Cornhill, Chile enroute to the islands. Captain Sheldrake, master of the vessel once visited Honolulu a score or more years ago. He expressed much surprise over the many changes noted during his absence. The Rokeby will remain at the naval wharf for about ten days.

THAT THERE will be a brief delay in the arrival of all Pacific Mail steamers coming from the Orient during the next few months is quite probable because of the opening of the season. It is understood that all steamers bound for San Francisco in the Pacific Mail service will call at Shikou, Japan; the great tea exporting center of the island empire. In most instances the calling for tea will cause a difference of about a day in their arrival at Honolulu.

INCLUDED in the cargo brought to this port by the inter-island steamer Kinau from Kauai ports was 3969 bag sugar, 103 sks cotton, 40 sks wool, 12 horses, 20 bags pla plants, 20 bag taro, 13 empty beer bris, 49 empty wine bris, 130 pkgs sundries.

THE INTER-ISLAND steamer Maui has been placed on the berth to sail at noon tomorrow for the ports of Mahukona, Kawaihae, Oohala and Kuluhae.

THE FREIGHT list brought by the steamer Mikahala from Maui and Molokai ports included 4809 sacks sugar, 22 bales hides, 23 head cattle, 50 hogs.

WITH THE ARRIVAL of the steamer Kinau from Hawaii ports came a shipment of sugar amounting to 3014 sacks, and 29 bundles scrap iron.

THE SAILING of the inter-island steamer Naeau is scheduled for 4 p. m. tomorrow evening. The vessel will call at various ports on Kauai.

ARRIVALS at the port this morning included the steamer Likiep from Hawaii ports with a full load of sugar.

Sing Yuen has applied to the court for the appointment of an administrator of the estate of Malle K. Paahao who died in 1905. The petitioner claims that the estate is indebted to him for $250 the amount of an assigned claim.

The action in the divorce proceedings brought by Rujo Yamamoto against his wife Yamamoto was dismissed this morning in Judge Robinson's court.

P. Maurice McMahon, reporter in Judge Robinson's court, this morning tried the old feminine way of alighting from a street car in front of the Judiciary building with the usual result.

The car was going some faster than is usual when women get off back wards, so when McMahon tried the same trick he landed solidly on the pavement and was considerably scratched to the great amusement of a number of persons on the car and in front of the building. He says he won't do it again.

Satisfied that in Harry Lord the Red Sox have a captain that will push them well up in front of the pennant race, President John I. Taylor of the Boston Americans has signed the third baseman up for three years. Taylor also announced that Speaker, his center fielder, had been signed up for two years.
